Aarsberetning fra det Norske skogelskaper. 1890-

Kristiania 1900-

Since its organization in 1888 the society has published notices and brief reports in the Tidsskrift for skogbruk, either as a part of the text of that periodical or as independently pagged supplements (reports for 1898-1900, 1903, are not separately pagged; 1901-02, 1906, are separately pagged supplements). A parallel series begun in 1901, entitled Aarsberetning fra det Norske skogelskaper og amtskogelskaperne, combines the reports of the various forestry societies of Norway. The first two reports of the latter series, 1901-02, were issued as supplements to the Tidsskrift for skogbruk, 1902-03, taking the place of the usual short report of the Norske skogelskaper for 1901-02; they are cataloged and classified with the other parts of the forestry societies.

The report for 1901 was the first published. The reports of the Norske skogelskaper not including the branch societies have been issued in the Tidsskrift for skogbruk since the foundation of the society in 1888, either without separate paging or as independently pagged supplements; they are cataloged in a separate entry. The reports for 1901-02 of the present series including the branch societies were also issued as supplements to the Tidsskrift for skogbruk, there being no report of the Norske skogelskaper alone for those years; they are considered as belonging with the series here cataloged, though issued in a style uniform with the other series of the "Aarsberetning".

"The first press within the bounds of the present state of North Carolina was set up in New Bern in 1749, by James Davis ... To Davis also belongs the honor of establishing the first newspaper in the colony ... The North Carolina gazette ... Number one appeared in December, 1753 ...
The Gazette was published about six years ... In 1764 Davis printed the first number of the North Carolina magazine ... Universal Intelligencer ...
The first number was from Friday, June 1, to Friday, June 8, 1764 ... At the close of 1764 a new volume was begun ... It is unknown how long the magazine continued to be published, but it was succeeded by the North Carolina gazette ... May 27, 1768 ... It is probable that ... the correspondence of this paper at that time simply marks a reversion by Davis to the name first used by him in 1753 ... S. B. Weeks. The press of North
